

BHARAT 2.0

Business Heroes Aspiring to Rise & Achieve Together

Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) presents
A premier startup event at MIT ADT University where innovation meets opportunity!

INNOVATION PARTNERS

BHARAT 2.0

Building on the success of BHARAT 1.0, we are excited to bring together startups, investors, and innovators for an even bigger and more impactful event this year. BHARAT 2.0 is designed to provide startups with the chance to showcase their ideas, receive valuable feedback, and potentially secure investments

Competition Structure

Registration Fees

₹500 per team

Presentation Format

A specific presentation format will be provided to all participants, which must be followed for the pitch

Two Screening Rounds

Round
1

Initial idea submission and concept screening

Round
2

Detailed pitch presentations in front of expert judges of selected teams

Why Participate?

Networking Opportunities

Meet like-minded entrepreneurs, investors, and mentors who can guide your startup to the next level.

Compete for the Grand Prize

With a total prize pool of ₹50,000/-, the top three startups will be rewarded for their innovation and impact.

Get Noticed

Present your startup to a panel of experienced investors and Mentors.

Terms & Conditions

Non-Refundable Registration Fee : After registration, startups will undergo a screening process by our jury team. If a startup is disqualified during any of the screening rounds, the registration fee will not be refunded.

Event Participation : Participation in the event is contingent upon successful selection after the two screening rounds. All decisions made by the jury team regarding disqualification or progression are final and binding.

Payment Terms : The registration fee of ₹500 is required upon sign-up. This fee is non-refundable under any circumstances, including disqualification.

Selection Process : Only startups that pass both screening rounds will be invited to present on the event day. Teams that do not qualify after the screenings will not be permitted to proceed further.